"AS THROUGH THE PARK I GO."—

Written and composed by
WM. LINGARD.

Arranged by
CHAS. E. PRATT.

The musical score is arranged in two systems. The first system consists of a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The piano part begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The second system continues the piano accompaniment, marked with a crescendo (cres.) and featuring triplet figures in the right hand. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

1. Oh! I'm a girl that's fond of life, My age is twen-ty one, I am a - verse to noise and strife, But ver - y fond of fun; And though to vice I'm not in - clin'd, I like the flatter - y of mankind, And al - ways like to speak my mind, A - like to ev' - ry one. ritard.

Chorus, page 6.

2. I live at home, with dear mam - ma, And do just as I will, While lov - ers' come from near and far, And me with non - sense fill; But I tell them all, I'll be a nun, And beg they will at once have done, But ritard.....

then they say, I'm on - ly in fun, As I laugh be - hind my fan.

Dialogue 2d. Verse.

Well, of course I am in fun sometimes, 'Twas only the other evening, mamma took me to a ball, and bought me this new dress from Madame Wintle for the occasion, for mamma said, I must put on my best smiles and graces, for I was getting rather old and it was quite time I was off her hands, Poor mama, she always has my interest at heart. So after the Ball was over one dear young fellow began to address me, and I really thought he was going to propose, but another gent came in and spoild it all. and I've many times heard them both remark _____

1st. Ver. For, as through the Park I go, The gents all want to know, "Who
2d. " As though &c.

is that dar - ling girl that drives so fast, they'd like to know.
